The Thrill of a Task Well Done

Few thrills vouchsafed to man are comparable to that which accompanies the completion of a difficult and challenging task. Why is this so? Why should there be ecstatic joy, at least a rich suffusion of pleasurableness, when one, after many a trial and error, perhaps after arduous labors, stands in the presence of his own success? Scientifically the thrill may be explained as the result of cessation of strains, as release from tensions. Certainly sheer relaxation from such strains appears partly to explain the exultation one feels upon achieving.

But is that complete explanation? I believe there are other and deeper ones. For instance, the thing accomplished stands not only as a symbol of one's tested ability, but as a suggestion of what one may do. It is prophetic. In that sense, every success into which one's best has gone, is an epitome of his potential future. It mirrors, however imperfectly, what he may be and do. I believe, therefore, that no little of the thrill which success brings is traceable to this prophetic aspect of the achievement. It springs essentially from new and beckoning vistas into one's tomorrows, not from mere release from the strain of his yesterdays. —H. T. HUNTER.

Alma Mater

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Faithful, kind, and true.
Every son and every daughter
Offers praise to you.

Chorus

Hail to the dearest spot of all
Hail to Cullowhee!
Light and life and fond devotion
All we owe to thee.

Football 1937

In reviewing the football season of 1937, it might be said that the Catamounts experienced one of the most successful seasons in the history of the school. Their record was five games lost and ten played. It is most unusual that at the conclusion of four games the score was tied. The single game won being over Eastern Carolina Teachers College with a score of 7-0. One of the high spots of the season was the fierce home-coming game with Appalachian. With many of our Alumni and friends present, the fighting Catamounts turned in what is sometimes known as a moral victory, by holding the championship Appalachian team to fourteen points. Appalachian having just previously defeated Elon, 30-0.

Another high-spot in the schedule was the dogged defense displayed in the Catawba game, in which the powerful Catawba team was held scoreless for fifty-five minutes of the sixty-minute playing time.

The Catamounts were composed of ten former lettermen of 1936 and rising members of the "B" team and Freshmen. Without an individual star, the squad, propelled by cooperative teamwork, developed into one of the outstanding defensive teams in the North Carolina Conference. The future of the Catamounts is bright, with about fifteen lettermen returning to battle in 1938 for Western Carolina Teachers College.

The Basketball Season

Playing a terrific schedule, the basketball team of 1938 experienced another successful season. The Catamounts turned in 21 victories against 10 defeats. With five lettermen returning from the 1937 squad, namely, White and Patton, forwards; Captain Long, Wright and Tomberlin, guards, and the addition of Ardrey and Meredith, the Catamounts gained momentum down the home stretch to defeat such outstanding teams in the North State Conference as: High Point, our eternal rival, Appalachian, Lenoir-Rhyne, Guilford, and East Carolina Teachers College. Lacking one victory for second place in the final standings, the Catamounts had to be content with fourth place in the very hotly contested race in the Conference for championship honors.

Another highlight of the season was the winning of the Gold Medal Tournament held at Sylva, North Carolina.

Again the cooperative teamwork and spirit exemplified itself in that the team was genuinely respected due to all-round teamwork rather than an individual star.

The "B" team, which is fast becoming popular and respected, turned in a very successful campaign, having won 12 of their 16 games scheduled.

With prospects of a new gymnasium to play in for the coming year, the Catamounts are looking forward to a big schedule with many college teams for the season of 1939.

Baseball
1937

PATTON
Captain

Baseball at Western Carolina Teachers College opened its season in 1938 for the second time, the sport having been dropped for several years at the college. During the early spring months, our football field was fashioned to provide space for baseball. A schedule of fourteen games, at the time this is written, is being attempted by a squad of young and ambitious boys who have some degree of ability in the national sport. Up to this point, the Catamounts have enjoyed fair success in their attempts.

Outstanding players on our squad are: W. Patton, Oxendine, Ardrey, Meredith, Wright, and Jarvis. With few of the squad being Seniors, prospects for a team that will complete in the Little Six Conference in 1939 are bright.
